

Summer 2017 Undergraduate Classics Courses

CLA2110 Debates About the Past: Greek Civilization, History, and Culture 3 Staff

This course is an introduction to different aspects of Greek, especially Athenian, culture, society, history and literature from the archaic age (8th-6th centuries BCE) through the classical era (5th-4th centuries BCE) and beyond. We shall touch on subjects like Greek democracy, daily life, religion, and drama, but also gain some familiarity with some masterpieces of Greek literature. Our goal is to understand the Greeks through their words and the views of modern scholars, which students will encounter in their assigned texts, translations of primary sources, and through lectures. Students will also sharpen their oral competency skills through participation in debates in a variety of roles. Liberal Studies History, Scholarship in Practice, Oral Communication Competency, Legacy Gordon Rule/Writing
Session B MWF 10:00am-12:10pm BEL0114

CLA2123 Debates About the Past: Roman Civilization, History, and Culture 3 Staff

This course is an introduction to different aspects of Roman culture, society, history, and literature from the period of the monarchy (roughly eighth century BCE) through the Late Empire (fifth century CE). We will touch on subjects like Roman entertainments, daily life, families, gladiators, and religion, but also gain some familiarity with the masterpieces of Latin literature. Our goal is to understand the Romans through their words and the views of modern scholars, which students will encounter in their assigned texts, translations of primary sources, and through lectures. Students will also sharpen their oral competency skills through participation in debates in a variety of roles. Liberal Studies History, Scholarship in Practice, Oral Communication Competency, Legacy Gordon Rule/Writing

Session C MWF 10:00am-12:10pm BEL0115

CLA3501 Gender and Society in Ancient Greece 3 Dr. J. Sickinger

This course examines the role and status of women in ancient Greek society, as depicted in its literature, art, law, and religion. Multicultural Y (Western Diversity) and Legacy Gordon Rule/Writing (W)
Session B Online (Web-Based)

CLT2049 Medical Terminology 3 Dr. S. Slaveva-Griffin

About 85 percent of all English vocabulary derives from Latin and Greek. Not only does modern scientific nomenclature derive from Latin and Greek elements, but the ancient languages continue to be the source from which new words are formed. Since the meanings of the words in Latin and Greek are fixed, medical terminology, based on these words, is also stable in meaning. By learning how to break down any medical term into its composing elements (prefix, word root, and suffix), you will acquire the necessary skills to analyze and learn technical vocabulary, for your future career in medicine and/or its related sciences. Liberal Studies History, Humanities and Cultural Practice
Session C Online (Web-Based)

CLT3378 Ancient Mythology: East and West 3

Dr. D. Branscome

This course examines from a multicultural perspective certain significant, recurring subjects in world mythology and legend. Attention will be given to the themes of Creation, the Mother Goddess, the Hero and the Underworld, as well as to myths that present popular motifs such as the Trickster, the Savior, and the Seasons. Religious, ritual and philosophical aspects will be considered along with the narrative content. Scholarship in Practice, Cross-Cultural X, Legacy Gordon Rule/Writing
