Announcements:

Our end of the year party will take place at Mission San Louis on Saturday, April 21, at 12:00. We will be touring the archaeological park, having lunch and electing next year's officers. Please RSVP to insure your admission to the park and lunch will be provided!

Congratulations to Buddy Hendrick, Bret Devereaux, Stephen Collins-Elliott, Reema Habib, Sophie Crawford-Brown, Dr. Laurel Fulkerson, and Dr. John Marincola who will be giving presentations at the 108th Annual CAMWS Meeting on March 28-31, 2012.

Congratulations to Dr. Daniel Pullen for being awarded a grant from INSTAP (Institute for Aegean Prehistory) for the 2012 Study Season of SHARP. Congratulations to Dr. Laurel Fulkerson, whose book, No Regrets: Remorse in Classical Antiquity, has been accepted for publication.

Lectures:

We will be hosting the first ever Cetamura Fieldwork Presentations on Friday, April 13, 2012. More information TBA.

Featured Students:

30,000 Silver Roman Coins Discovered in Bath
A hoard of over 30,000 silver coins were discovered in Bath, approximately 450 feet from the historic Roman Baths, during the construction of a new city-center hotel. For more information, visit: http://www.telegraph.co.uk/culture/culturenews/9161483/Hoard-of-30000-silver-Roman-coins-discovered-in-Bath.html

2,200 Year Old Inscription Found on Samanamalai
A Tamil-Brahmi inscription, dating to the second century BCE was discovered at Samanamalai, 15 km from the Madurai district. The inscription was found on a boulder in which a drop ledge has been cut and beds were excavated on the rock floor for Jaina monks to rest. For more information, visit: http://www.thehindu.com/arts/history-and-culture/article3220674.ece

300 Year Old Coins Found Near Bellary, India
213 gold coins, believed to be 300 years old, were discovered by a homeowner after being unearthed during drainage work at his house near Bellary, India. The coins depict the image of Lord Shiva, his consort Parvati and the Moon. For more information, visit: http://articles.timesofindia.indiatimes.com/2012-03-24/india/31233755_1_gold-coins-house-owner-bellary

Roman Burial Urns Found at Chippenham, England
Five Roman burial urns, discovered in Chippenham, are being researched by the Wiltshire Council Conservation Services. The urns date to the Roman conquest and are believed to contain human bones. For more information, visit: http://www.gazetteandherald.co.uk/news/towns/chippenhamheadlines/9607734.Mysteries_revealed_at_Chippenham/